

Handkerchief Chair
Massimo and Lella Vignelli

HANDKERCHIEF CHAIR Vignelli Associates introduces design elegance to the stacking chair. Fluid in form, the Handkerchief chair evokes the light, soft contours of a handkerchief floating through the air. The graciously scaled, ergonomically sculpted shell offers spacious comfort and ample support. With the offering of new arm and upholstery options, the chair fits easily into a variety of offices, conference rooms and dining areas, making it a welcome addition to almost any environment.

MASSIMO AND LELLA VIGNELLI Massimo Vignelli and his wife, Lella, have collaborated on myriad projects incorporating their industrial, furniture and graphic design talents. Their New York firm, Vignelli Associates, applies a Modernist aesthetic to every assignment, polishing each artifact to a glossy finish that reflects clarity, beauty and functionality. The corporate identity they created for Knoll in 1972 made them famous worldwide.

BKS214R © 2006 Knoll, Inc.

